

CURRENT OFFERINGS AT TEN THOUSAND WAVES

The Governor of New Mexico issued a health order designed to cut down on the incidence of COVID. It is in effect from November 16, 2020 through at least November 30 and requires that non-essential businesses close until the current case numbers improve. Although we consider ourselves ‘essential’, the Governor is requiring us to discontinue massage and hot tubs for now.

We will continue to offer curbside pickup and delivery to your home or lodging room from our spectacular izakaya, izanami. We are again offering shabu shabu for you to create a feast at home, Kiko’s comida—a different Japanese-Mexican family-style meal every week, and all the dishes you’ve grown to love on our winter menu. We can also advise our curbside clients about the perfect beverage to enjoy with your meal.

Our lodging will also remain open—with contactless check-in and -out if you desire. Even without spa services, we can offer you a quiet getaway near some of the best hiking and wilderness scenery in New Mexico. izanami can deliver food to you nightly. And if you need a place to quarantine, this might just be the ideal thing to get you away from the same four walls!

If you do encounter our staff or other guests, please remember to wear a mask and practice social distance.

We’re here to help you through this phase of the new world order. As soon as the numbers improve and the Governor gives the word, we’ll be back with the spa services and table dining we have been renowned for. Read about the extraordinary measures we have in place to keep you safe when we reopen.
