

CURRENT OFFERINGS AT TEN THOUSAND WAVES

The Governor of New Mexico has issued a new health order taking effect on December 2 designed to cut down on the incidence of COVID.

Our spectacular izakaya, izanami, will begin outdoor table service under our pavilion with cozy blankets and space heaters beginning December 2. Click here to reserve your spot. We also offer curbside pickup and delivery. We are again offering shabu shabu for you to create a feast at home, Kiko's comida—a different Japanese-Mexican family-style meal every week, and all the dishes you've grown to love on our winter menu. We can also advise our curbside clients about the perfect beverage to enjoy with your meal.

Our lodging remains open—with contactless check-in and check-out if you desire. Beginning December 7, each room will have access to a private hot bath throughout the day. In addition we are a quiet getaway near some of the best hiking and wilderness scenery in New Mexico. izanami can deliver food to you nightly. And if you need a place to quarantine, this might just be the ideal thing to get you away from the same four walls!

If you do encounter our staff or other guests, please remember to wear a mask and practice social distance.

We're here to help you through this phase of the new world order. As soon as the numbers improve and the Governor gives the word, we'll be back with even more of the services for which we are renowned. Read about the extraordinary measures we have in place to keep you safe.
